

Probate + Trust Administration

When a family member becomes incapacitated or dies, Miller Canfield attorneys are available to assist with all aspects of the administration of estates and trusts, including estate tax return preparation; all aspects of guardianships and conservatorships; preparation of final individual income tax, estate and trust income tax returns; as well as probate and ancillary probate proceedings; all aspects of guardianships and conservatorships; trust administration; audits; Tax Court proceedings; and all types of estate and trust litigation. Our complete legal services subsequent to a death include advising clients with respect to their rights and obligations as surviving spouses, trust beneficiaries or as a fiduciaries of estates or trusts.

Miller Canfield's firm-wide expertise in real estate, business transactions, family law, intellectual property, employment and pension issues, immigration, international law and other specialty areas, provide coordinated solutions to individualized and complex needs. Our foreign language capabilities translate into seamless service delivery for international clients.

---