

Public Law - Powers, Open Meetings + FOIA

Miller Canfield attorneys provide advice on all aspects of general public agency law. This includes but is not limited to advice relating to general statutory and home rule powers, charters, the Open Meetings Act, the Freedom of Information Act, elections, bidding and contracting, construction contracts, municipal utilities, ordinance powers, and inter-governmental cooperation and agreements.

Our attorneys have many years of practical, hands-on experience to successfully guide public agencies through increasingly complex legal issues. Miller Canfield's public law attorneys strive to provide its clients with understandable and workable solutions to the legal challenges faced by its clients.

