

Brownfield Redevelopment Projects

Miller Canfield attorneys specialize in all aspects of brownfield redevelopment projects and were the principal drafters of the Brownfield Redevelopment Financing Act. Whether your needs involve establishing a brownfield redevelopment authority, implementing or modifying a tax increment finance plan, or issuing municipal bonds to facilitate remediation, we have the expertise you will need. Our attorneys are also well skilled in negotiating agreements with developers and sorting tax credits options available for redevelopment projects.

