

Governmental Buildings

Miller Canfield attorneys have been involved with the financing of governmental buildings of all types and uses whether state or state department buildings, colleges and universities, county, city, village and township buildings. We assist by:

- Consulting with governmental officials and advising on the legal options to borrow and method of repayment of debt
  - Preparing all of the necessary resolutions, notices, agreements, and other documents to authorize, issue and market the bonds
  - Providing advice and comment on disclosure documents and on all disclosure obligations under federal securities law in connection with the marketing and sale of municipal securities
  - Analyzing the tax issues related to the bonds
  - Rendering required legal opinions on validity and tax exemption
  - Reviewing and advising as to the legal accuracy of certain information contained in the official statement respecting the bonds
