

Museums + Cultural Facilities

Miller Canfield has served as bond counsel to cultural and civic institutions and other nonprofit corporations in connection with their capital needs. From assisting in completing applications to governmental issuers to delivering opinions on the tax exemption of the bonds, we can assist you in all aspects of your bond financing. Our lawyers are experienced in a wide range of structures and products, including fixed rate, variable rate and auction rate structures and with products such as letters of credit, municipal bond insurance, standby bond purchase agreements and interest rate swap agreements.

