

Construction Litigation

Owners, general contractors, subcontractors, architects, engineers, and sureties turn to us for litigation, arbitration, and pre-dispute counseling involving construction issues. Miller Canfield lawyers have extensive experience with claims for delay, extended general conditions, extra work, liquidated damages, construction liens, defective work and workplace injury. Miller Canfield has worked with construction experts and engineers throughout the country involving claims in the billions of dollars.

