

Restructure, Enforcement, Insolvency + Bankruptcy

"We treat all enforcement matters like it was our money."

Steven Roach, Leader, Financial Institutions and Transactions Group

Miller Canfield's attorneys are recognized as leaders in troubled suppliers, retail, manufacturing, real estate, and floor planning, among other areas, both in the United States and Ontario. Our unique ability to handle both U.S. and Canadian insolvencies provides our clients with efficient, expedient resolution of insolvency and enforcement matters. Our cross border expertise is why we represent one of the Big Three throughout the United States and in Canada as its lead counsel in troubled supplier matters. We apply our expertise and result focused approach to all insolvency and enforcement matters that we handle.
