

Elections + Campaign Finance

Miller Canfield attorneys provide guidance to, and litigate on behalf of, public and private entities as well as individuals on a wide range of election-related matters, including bond, millage and candidate elections, petition-initiated elections, amendments to city charters and the state constitution, recounts, recalls, voting rights, and the use of public facilities, funds and resources for or against ballot proposals or candidates, as well as compliance with state and federal statutes and regulations with respect to elections and ethics.
