Scott A. Warheit focuses on commercial litigation and dispute resolution. A lifelong Michigander, Scott plans to use the skills he acquired while a student at the University of Michigan Law School to assist his clients with any and all issues which may arise.

"I offer my clients a strong work ethic combined with an extensive writing and advocacy background."

Scott A. Warheit

Starting at age 12 and continuing through law school, Scott wrote sports columns and feature stories for newspapers and magazines in Metro Detroit, most notably for The Detroit News. He continues to write a daily Detroit Tigers blog for Mlive.com, the online home of the Booth Newspapers. Scott believes this background provides him a unique perspective and skill set well suited for the legal profession.
