John D. Leslie concentrates on commercial litigation, bankruptcy and insolvency including debtor/credit rights and financial restructurings in the Canadian auto sector. He has advised financial institutions, OEMs, Tier 1 and Tier 2 suppliers and Trustees in all areas of bankruptcy and insolvency matters including representing parties in complex restructurings, Plans of Arrangement under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act and Proposals under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act. He advises auto suppliers on cross-border issues as it relates to the protection and realization of assets. He also focuses on counseling in-bound Canadian investment and organizations seeking to establish operations in Canada.
