B. Jay Yelton III leads the firm's Electronic Discovery + Records Management team, which specializes in the design and implementation of records management programs, litigation readiness plans and e-discovery strategies. During the last 15-plus years, in response to litigation and government investigations, Jay has gained extensive experience assisting Fortune 500 corporations, governmental agencies and other organizations design and defend effective discovery plans and to implement and manage those discovery plans from start to finish. He regularly conducts educational and training seminars on records and discovery management topics for in-house legal and IT departments, bar and trade associations, and state and local municipalities. He has also written for, and been quoted in, numerous state and national publications on records and discovery management topics.
