Malgorzata (Gosia) Potega-Bill maintains a diverse practice in international, corporate, commercial and securities law. Gosia has assisted her clients in a number of mergers and acquisitions, outbound and inbound investments, joint ventures and strategic alliances.

With an extensive professional background in her native Poland, as well as Germany and the United States, Gosia is in a unique position to counsel her clients pursuing business opportunities in the United States and abroad. In addition to offering her legal advice, Gosia has also located attractive investment prospects and contacts for her clients seeking to expand into foreign markets. She has assisted clients on green field investments and negotiated the terms of business relationships with local companies in various international jurisdictions.

Gosia has participated in a diverse range of corporate matters, including major domestic and international mergers and acquisitions, and counseled her clients on smaller corporate and commercial projects such as: drafting and negotiating purchase agreements, distributor and sales agent agreements, confidentiality agreements, lease agreements, operating agreements and various other documents designed to facilitate and advance her clients' businesses.

In addition to her corporate practice, Gosia also has experience in securities laws and regulations and assisted both domestic and foreign clients in their compliance with the US registration requirements.
