2010 Cyber Threats: Organizational Strategies To Avert 21st Century Risk

May 13, 2010

With new data protection laws and many more on the horizon, learn how to minimize the risks to your organization and discover the strategies that will best protect your business against costly expenses.

Unauthorized access and use of your customers' or employees' information is devastating to those individuals affected. It can also subject your organization to statutory and civil liability, not to mention downright embarrassment and harm to your good name.

Presenters: Miller Canfield's Kathy Ossian, principal and information technology law team leader, and Meredith Schnur, vice president, professional risk group, Wells Fargo Insurance Services USA, Inc.

Moderator: John Roberts, vice president of Wells Fargo Insurance Agency of Michigan.
