Miller Canfield Presents "Doing Business in Mexico in Times of Economic Uncertainty" in USA and Canada

August 25, 2009

The law firm of Miller Canfield announces the first of a series of International Trade Briefings to take place in North America, Europe and China. Join lawyers from Miller Canfield's Canadian, U.S. and Mexican offices for "Doing Business in Mexico in Times of Economic Uncertainty" – a timely update on IMMEX and shelter programs, employment and union issues, securing property, political changes, and economic incentives.

The briefing is essential for those with operations, customers or suppliers in Mexico, or who have plans to expand there, especially in the areas of automotive and non-automotive manufacturing, food processing, retail, hotel/hospitality and health care.
