

Miller Canfield Lawyer Gurinder Singh Elected to Executive Board of South Asian Bar Association of Michigan

December 18, 2009

Miller Canfield associate Gurinder J. Singh (Ann Arbor, Mich.) has been elected to the executive board of the South Asian Bar Association of Michigan, an organization providing South Asian lawyers a forum for professional growth and advancement. In addition, she joined the steering group of the India Committee of the International Section of the American Bar Association (ABA) and was named a Michigan Super Lawyer "Rising Star."

At Miller Canfield, Singh assists companies and individuals with a wide range of business needs in the global marketplace and has helped several U.S. and international clients with complex mergers and acquisitions. She also served as the ambassador of the firm at the recent U.S. India Business Council and Chamber of Commerce luncheon in Washington, D.C. for Indian Prime Minister, the Honorable Dr. Manmohan Singh.

She received her J.D. from Wayne State University Law School and B.S.E. from the University of Michigan, College of Engineering.