

Miller Canfield in MEXICO

We Do More Than Advise. We Make Things Happen.

Miller Canfield provides legal counsel and representation to companies doing business in or with Mexico. The firm's international practice lawyers rank among the best in the industry. We offer a wide range of services to satisfy the needs of multinational corporations, publicly or privately held corporations, partnerships, joint ventures, strategic alliance and business enterprises of all kinds.

Along with the attorneys in our Monterrey office, our attorneys in the U.S., Canada, Europe, and China counsel and represent clients on their cross-border matters and business disputes in Mexico. The Mexico team features senior Mexican attorneys with extensive experience in cross-border transactions and disputes, and one of the very few attorneys with a U.S.-Mexico dual-degree (J.D.) and license.

Companies looking to establish, expand, sell or consolidate operations in Mexico count on Miller Canfield to structure deals that optimize trade, treaty and tax benefits. They also rely on us to negotiate and close transactions and provide general legal advice in a practical and efficient manner.
