Poland remains a strong ally of the U.S., and these countries continue to partner closely on issues such as democratization, non-proliferation, counterterrorism, human rights, economic growth and innovation. Learn about the region's relevance from three perspectives:

- The political and macroeconomic situation in Poland;
- The current and future economic landscape in the region;
- New venture opportunities and emerging areas for businesses in Poland.

Attendees will hear firsthand insight from an expert panel on issues facing Poland's business community, the latest economic trends, technological innovations, and manufacturing and investment opportunities that will shape the bilateral relation in the coming years. Ticket price includes breakfast.
