

UKRAINE: FROM WAR TO RECONSTRUCTION

A Luncheon Panel Discussion Co - Sponsored by the International Trade Club of Chicago (ITCC) and the Polish American Chamber of Commerce (PACC)

From War to Reconstruction

As the second year of Russia's war on Ukraine is upon us, we confidently look forward to Ukraine's prevailing in its struggle to preserve its freedom and territorial integrity. Now and when the war is over, Ukraine will need to be rebuilt and economically re-invigorated. To help set the stage by sharing information and practical insights, the ITCC, the PACC, and their organizational and corporate partners invite you to a special luncheon session featuring remarks by Serhiy Koledov, Consul General of Ukraine in Chicago, and a panel discussion with:

- Ronald Given, Secretary, ITCC (Moderator)
- Brian Michael Jenkins, Senior Advisor, RAND Corporation (Opening Remarks)
- Michał Rzeźnik, Head of Poland's Foreign Trade Office Chicago
- Dan Kim, Regional Director, US Department of Commerce in Chicago
- Justyna Regan, Principal, Miller Canfield
- Yuriy Ostapyak, COO, Logistics Plus
- Ross Lund, CEO, ProEx Food, LLC

Overview

Participants will have an excellent opportunity to hear insights with regard to the following topics:

- Latest information on war's impact on the commerce and economy of Ukraine
- The role of the international community in the rebuilding of Ukraine
- Synopsis of current and anticipated sectoral needs and opportunities
- Immediate/on-going and effective strategies of doing business in Ukraine
- Minimizing risk and costs, and dealing with barriers of doing business in Ukraine

Fee

- $25 FOR ITCC/ PACC MEMBERS AND THEIR GUESTS
- $45 FOR NON - MEMBERS

EVENT DETAILS

Wednesday, May 17
from 12 - 2 PM CST

ServCorp - Chicago
155 N Wacker Drive, 2nd Floor, Chicago, IL 60606

REGISTRATION

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES HERE